4. Responsibility

- All children must be left in the care of a teacher on their arrival in the morning, and must be fetched by a responsible person. Please notify us if someone not known to the school personnel will be fetching your child.
- Each family receives one (1) tag for their registered child(ren) to enter/exit the premises during school hours. This provides extra security and serves as an attendance register. Extra tags are available from the office

2nd tag – R50

3rd tag -R100

Replacement tag R100

The person signing for the tag remains the accountable person and remains responsible for the proper use of the tag.

- Neither the Lynnwood Ridge Pre-Primary School nor the Dutch Reformed Church can be held responsible for any injury, which a child may sustain, on his/her way to or from school during school hours.
- Every possible precaution will be taken for the safety and well-being of the children during school hours.

5. Health policy

- A child who has had a fever or illness during the night, should stay at home at least the following day or until the symptoms have disappeared.
- A child with an infectious disease or illness, fever or excessive coughing should stay at home until completely recovered.
- If a child falls ill during the day, the parent will be telephoned and asked to fetch the child immediately.
- It is the parents' responsibility to be contactable at all times in case of an emergency. If the parent cannot be reached, the person named on the information card will be contacted to fetch the child.
- We do not have any medication on site and we are not allowed to administer any medication.
- Should a child suffer from asthma, allergies or is a diabetic and is dependent on prescribed medicine, emergency medicine will be administered, providing we have the written instruction from the parent on our medicine administration form, that is available and kept in the office.

6. General

- We offer Christian based education.
- No meals are provided. Each child should bring a healthy snack (fruit, a sandwich and juice/water) each day. Full day children need to hand an extra, healthy lunch to their teacher in the mornings. Cakes and sweets are allowed ONLY on special occasions.
- All belongings, including shoes, should be marked. NO toys should be brought to school.
- Photographs of children busy with activities will be published on our website and Facebook, for the purpose of advertising.
- Parents are requested to inform the teacher and if need be, the principal, of any unusual or disturbing circumstances, which may influence the child's behaviour at school.
- The secretary should be informed when a child is unable to attend school.

3Initial Here – Both Parents _____

- The secretary should be informed of any change of address, telephone number or doctor.

INDEMNITY FORM

I/We, the undersigned

_____ (the Father/Guardian) and _____ (the Mother/Guardian)

in my/our personal capacities and in my/our representative capacities as parents/guardians of our child, hereby agree to and accept the following terms and conditions:

1. I/We hereby acknowledge that the school will make every effort to ensure the proper care and safety of our child and his/her possessions, whilst the child is under the school's direct supervision. I/We hereby undertake not to institute action against or claim or hold liable the school, it's teachers, assistants or other employees, for any injury or damage, which might be suffered by me/us or my/our child resulting from any act whatsoever, whether due to negligence, omission of default by the school, it's teachers, assistants or other employees.
2. I/We acknowledge that the school premises will from time to time be used for extramural activities, wherein my/our child might take part. In regards to such extramural activities, I/we hereby undertake not to institute action against or claim or hold liable the school, it's teachers, assistants, other employees or independent third parties making use of the school's facilities, for any injury or damage, which might be suffered by me/us or my/our child resulting from any act whatsoever, whether due to negligence, omission of default by the school, it's teachers, assistants or other employees.
3. I/We hereby expressly indemnify the school, its teachers, assistants or other employees against any other claims, legal action/demands/costs, damage, injury and expenses/ including claims of third parties/ arising out of any act or actions done by my/our child, including damage to equipment, apparatus, buildings and property of the school or third parties, whilst in the care and control of the school.
4. I/We hereby indemnify the school for the costs and expenses of any reasonable treatment (including emergency treatment) required by my/our child whilst in the care of the school.
5. I/We hereby consent that a teacher of the school, in whose care our child has been left, may give the necessary consent for my/our child to receive emergency medical treatment; neither of the parents can be contacted to give such consent. The school will however make every effort to contact the parents of a pupil if any medical treatment should be necessary. I/We undertake to ensure that the school will be in possession of my/our relevant contact details in this regard.
